Last week's scores/highlights

Away	Home	Score
Sus. Supersonics W	Renegades	66-46
Nike Elites W	Misfits	76-52
U.I. Solutions W	W&L Subaru	52-33

- In the first match up between the Susquehanna Supersonics and the Renegades, the Supersonics took over the game with their overwhelming offense. Supersonics' Joey Britto and Zach Mrozeck found fire early this season by scoring for a combined effort of 32 points. Renegades offensive monster, Dallas Reinard, put up a great fight scoring 17 points, but was unable to make up the difference for the offensive onslaught the Supersonics were dishing out.
- The Misfits fell short this week. Receiving a rather humbling loss to the Nike Elites. The Misfits didn't seem to have answer for the Nike Elites' offensive superstar Nate Hollister, who scored 27 points. The Misfits defense were no match for the well balanced and fast paced offense of the Nike Elites.
- United Insurance came out the gates blazing with their hot handed player, Clayton King, finding his shot early and staying steady throughout the entire game. W&L Subaru's Garret Basset gave his best efforts to put a spark in his team, scoring 13 points. Unfortunately, the well-coached United Insurance showed to be too much for W&L Subaru and drove off with the victory.
