Renegades (3-2)	Independents (3-1) W	29- 35
Misfits (0-5)	W&L Subaru (2-3) W	46- 60
The Big D (0-4)	Nike Elites (3-2) W	58- 73

- The Independents pull off the one of the best wins since the “Miracle”, taking down the Renegades with a final score of 35 to 29. The Independents leading scorer was Jon Hohman with 12 points. Hohman drove hard all night and made his living at the line with 8 points out of 10 free throws. Renegades’ Ry Carman scored 10 points to try to keep his team in the game and he knocked down two crucial three-pointers late in the game. Ultimately it was the Independents who cooled off the red hot Renegades. The Independents will have to double down its luck when it takes on the undefeated Supersonics and the Nike Elites. The Renegades try to bounce back against U.I. Solutions.
- W&L Subaru defeated the Misfits with a final score of 60-46. The Misfits’ Chris Perullo and Shaun Landis did their best to keep the Misfits in the games until the final minutes. However, W&L Subaru’s Mike Rorke and Mark Forbes put a screeching halt to the Misfits’ hopes of winning. Rorke drained five three-pointers and scored 17 points. Forbes, also red hot, had 15 points and drained two three-pointers. Next week the Misfits take on the Independents and W&L Subaru will take on The Big D.
- The Nike Elites brought back the high flying attack we have seen in previous weeks, outscoring The Big D 73-58. The Nike Elites had a quartet of effective scorers with Will Silva, Brandon Rogers, Nate Hollister and Brandon Maurice effectively having a combined effort of 67 points. The Big D’s Sam Faulkner dropped 16 points against the Elites and Max Gherman scored 19 points. Sadly, this wasn’t enough to stop the well-balanced Nike Elites. The Big D has a double header against W&L Subaru and the Misfits. The Nike Elites take on the Independents.
- The Supersonics once again remain undefeated. The Supersonics defeated U.I. Solutions 94 to 63. Supersonics’ Michael Rudy had 30 points and had a great supporting staff of Britto, Mrozek, Hartzel and Musselman. U.I. Solutions’ Eric Wicks showed off his offensive abilities, scoring 17 points. Next week U.I. Solutions play the Renegades and the Supersonics match up against the Independents.
